

AFFINE DIFFERENTIAL GEOMETRIC ASPECTS OF TSALLIS STATISTICS

ATSUMI OHARA

Nonextensive statistical mechanics with Tsallis entropy is discussed from a view point of affine differential geometry. First we show the space of probabilities provided with the entropy has constant curvature using the notion of alpha conformal flatness.

From this fact we secondly derive several interesting geometric properties.